

K-State Research and Extension Offers

Training for Financial Empowerment Trainers

September 14, 2017

1:00 pm - 4:00 pm

Your Money, Your Goals

Training Purpose—To Provide you with:

- An orientation to Your Money, Your Goals, a financial empowerment toolkit for Social Services programs developed by Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB)
- An overview of the training for case managers and other frontline staff
- The tools, knowledge and confidence to provide this training to your constituency or in your community

Training Topics

- Financial Empowerment
- Starting the conversation
- Emotions, values, culture & money decisions
- Saving for emergencies, bills & goals
- Tracking & managing income & benefits
- Paying bills & other expenses
- Getting through the month—managing cash flow
- Credit & Debt
- Consumer Protection
- Financial products, services & providers

K-STATE

Research and Extension

Registration Information:

Wildcat Extension District: 620-784-5337

Southwind Extension District: 620-223-3720

Register Online: <http://bit.ly/2how3eX>

No cost to participate

Meeting location:

Southeast Research-Extension Center - 25092 Ness Road, Parsons, KS

K-State Research and Extension is an equal opportunity employer and provider.