

Join us for the 2020 KSU Swine Day – Virtual Conference November 18 – 19, 2020 10 am – 12 noon CST

We are offering an opportunity to connect with other producers while attending the virtual conference.
Montgomery County Fairgrounds | Nov. 18-19 | 10:00 a.m. - Noon
RSVP through Nov. 16 | $7.75 lunch or bring your own | Wear warm clothes
-To connect producers with research-based information while providing a safe environment, we ask that you visit like a pig stands between you!-

Register

To register, go to <http://bit.ly/2020SwineDay>

Schedule

Wednesday November 18 (10 am – 12:00 CST) “Focus on applied swine nutrition”

Introductory comments for the 2020 K-State Swine Industry Day – Joel DeRouche

- Feeding sows immediately before farrowing – What have we learned? – Jason Woodworth
 - Minimizing disruption in nutrient intake after weaning – Mike Tokach
 - Preparing for a world without ZnO – Jordan Gebhardt
 - Current K-State swine nutrition and management research – Bob Goodband
 - Understanding and influencing pig body weight variation – Joel DeRouche
- Interactive question and comment opportunity*

Thursday November 19 (10:00 – 12:00 CST) “Focus of Feed Safety and Feed Processing”

Feed Safety Main Session (10 – 11 am)

- Feedmill Biosecurity: What have we learned since 2013? Jason Woodworth and Chad Paulk
 - New research and information developed at K-State - Cassie Jones
 - Latest findings from the K-State-Vietnam partnership – Jordan Gebhardt
 - The future of Feed Safety research - Everyone
- Interactive question and comment opportunity*

Feed Processing Main Session (11 am – 12:00)

- Adjusting hammermill settings to achieve a target corn particle size - Charles Stark
 - Key diet composition characteristics that influence pellet quality - Chad Paulk
 - Can pelleting different diet types influence amino acid digestibility? - Chad Paulk
- Interactive question and comment opportunity*

Information

For updates, visit www.KSUswine.org and follow the 2020 KSU Swine Day link. For more information, contact Wendie Powell at wendiepowell@ksu.edu or 620-784-5337

Thank you 2020 KSU Swine Day – Virtual Sponsors

