

K-STATE
Research and Extension
Master Food Volunteer

K-STATE RESEARCH AND EXTENSION

MASTER FOOD VOLUNTEER

ONLINE TRAINING SESSIONS

Applications due December 1, 2023

Becoming a Master Food Volunteer is a great opportunity for anyone interested in helping community members learn about food and nutrition topics in a fun manner. Or, making friends that share a similar passion for health and nutrition. Program includes both in-person and online training sessions January 16 to February 24, 2024.

Applicants must:

- Complete an application, interview, and successful background check
- $120 registration fee is due after acceptance into program

Training lead by Southwind, Marais des Cygnes, and Wildcat District FCS Agents.

Contact your local extension office for application materials or click here.

Clara Wicoff

Southwind District
(620) 365-2242
clarawicoff@ksu.edu

Franny Eastwood

Marais des Cygnes District
(913) 795-2829
fmeastwo@ksu.edu

Holly Miner

Wildcat Extension District
Phone (620) 331-2690
haminer@ksu.edu

K-State Research and Extension is committed to providing equal opportunity for participation in all programs, services and activities. Program information may be available in languages other than English. Reasonable accommodations for persons with disabilities, including alternative means for communication (e.g., Braille, large print, audio tape, and American Sign Language) may be requested by contacting the event contact Holly Miner two weeks prior to the start of the event at (620) 331-2690 or haminer@ksu.edu. Requests received after this date will be honored when it is feasible to do so. Language access services, such as interpretation or translation of vital information will be provided free of charge to limited English proficient individuals upon request.

Kansas State University Agricultural Experiment Station and Cooperative Extension Service
K-State Research and Extension is an equal opportunity provider and employer.