

Youth Leadership Facilitator Training

High school and middle school youth are invited to attend this free, pre-holiday training on how active facilitation skills can transform complicated issues into safe spaces for thoughtful dialogue. The capstone to this event allows trainees to experience their very own National Issues Forum Community Conversation discussing “What is the 21st Century Mission for Our Public Schools.” All active participants will become Institute for Civic Discourse and Democracy (ICDD) Certified Facilitators after the training.

Tuesday and Thursday, Nov. 16 & 18
5:30 – 7:30 p.m.
Interactive Virtual Class (Zoom, requires internet and computer access), No Cost

To register, visit:
www.wildcatdistrict.ksu.edu
Or call Frances Graves at 785-331-5378

